A NOTE FROM YOUR ADMINISTRATION

Dear Families and Friends,

Celebrate our Parish is this weekend: January 31st and February 1st. We would love to see you at Blessed Sacrament Parish this weekend for mass. Students who attend are encouraged to wear their school uniforms and help to bring up the gifts at all of the masses the weekend of January 31st/Feb. 1st.

Students will be able to purchase raffle tickets for baskets that the teachers have worked on for each grade through Tuesday, February 3rd. They are $.25 each (no pennies). Last year, the money raised was given to St. Vincent de Paul and funded the celebration for our student Celebrate Success winners.

SRO Update: Fort Mitchell will be swearing in their new officer on February 17th to replace our SRO who currently works for Fort Mitchell. The new officer will need a couple weeks of training, so our SRO will start the first week of March. Chief Nader said, "This is one of the quickest hires we have done. We're trying, but we have to follow state rules." Thank you to Fort Mitchell and Chief Nader for their support in providing an SRO for Blessed Sacrament.

Cheerfully in Christ,

Mrs. Aideen Briggs
Principal

"Not only are the attitudes of teachers crucial for the success of Catholic education, but also the attitudes of Catholic parents..." – Pope John Paul II
