A NOTE FROM YOUR ADMINISTRATION

Dear Families and Friends,

Thank you to all who came, donated, volunteered, and supported An Evening to Treasure on Saturday night! It was a great success of fun and friendship, and I enjoyed seeing so many demonstrate their dance moves.

Today is our last day of the second trimester! Second trimester can be challenging with Thanksgiving, Christmas, and then snow days/delays thrown in the mix. The bitter, cold weather and the early sunsets can make it hard to stay focused and disciplined. Congratulations to our students, parents, and teachers for encouraging each other to do our best!

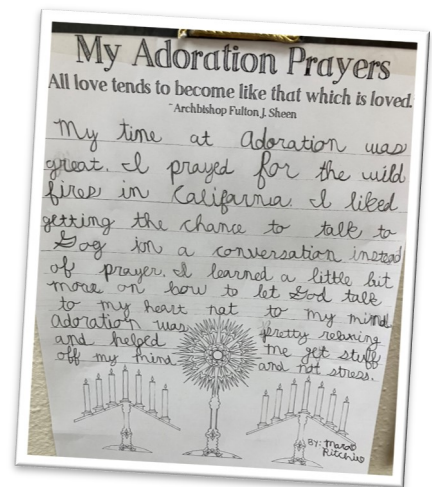

As we prepare for Ash Wednesday and the season of Lent, our 1st-8th grade students will participate in a special Palm Burning Ceremony on Monday, March 3rd. If you have palms from last year's Palm Sunday, please have your student bring them in to be burned into ashes by Monday, March 3rd. This ceremony is a powerful reminder of our Lenten journey to turn away from sin and begin anew.

I hope you can join us for Ash Wednesday All School mass at 8:15 a.m.

Blessings,

Mrs. Aileen Briggs
Principal, Blessed Sacrament School
