A NOTE FROM YOUR ADMINISTRATION

Dear Families and Friends,

Welcome month of May! At mass today, we all heard the most beautiful present to Father Su. Thank you to Mrs. Weber, our choir, and our students for learning a song in Father Su's native language and singing it for him today as he celebrated mass with us. Of course, we were also singing it for our good God as Father Dan pointed out the universality of the Catholic church. I am thinking there were more happy tears than mine at mass today who were affected by your kindness.

Next Friday, May 8th, is May Crowning and The Circle Song! Please join us by 8:10, so that you're there before the doors are locked.

Looking forward to seeing many at the First Holy Communion mass this Sunday at 1:00 p.m.

Cheerfully in Christ,

Mrs. Aideen Briggs
Principal

This camp is a great way for younger students to get creative and try new things in the art room! We will complete three projects during this 4-day camp, including sculpture, weaving, and painting. We will be working on the same projects in each session, so please only sign up for one camp/student. These spots filled up QUICKLY last year, so I added a third session this summer - don't miss out!
