A NOTE FROM YOUR ADMINISTRATION

Dear Families and Friends,

This has been another busy week at Blessed Sacrament. Our first graders had an exciting field trip to the zoo with many parent/grandparent volunteers. Our 8th graders started the day with a mass just for them before heading off to Potter's Ranch. Our new pastor, Father Dan, was a welcome addition to the team building activities students participated in while on the trip. Both events help our students to bond with each other and their teachers while learning new information.

As a reminder, we are hosting our School Safety Listening Session tomorrow, October 4th beginning at 10:00 in the church for Holy mass. We will then move to the Parish Center for the Listening Session. Depending on how many people would like to speak, we are allocating two minutes to each person to share their ideas/concerns. If you turned in something in writing, we will be sharing that aloud.

We hope you can join us for the Living Rosary led by our 3rd and 4th graders this Tuesday at 8:10. We also have All School Mass on Friday at 8:10.

Cheerfully in Christ,

Mrs. Aideen Briggs
Principal, Blessed Sacrament

In recognition of his incredible commitment and impact, we proudly dedicated the soccer fields at the DCCH Sports Center as the Lance Wells Soccer Complex.
